

Eric Elison ~ Lightfoot of the Rockies

Singer-Songwriter and Gordon Lightfoot Tribute Artist

Eric Elison, is a former Naval Aviator, Singer Songwriter, and Gordon Lightfoot Tribute Artist. He possesses a rich, vibrato laced baritone, reminiscent of Gordon Lightfoot in his prime. Several events catapulted Eric into becoming a Lightfoot Tribute Artist as well as a songwriter. One was meeting Joni Mitchell's ex-husband.

“You are channelling Gordie Lightfoot. Trust me I know what Gordie sounds like. He used to sleep on my sofa!”

Chuck Mitchell (Joni's Ex)

Eric met Chuck Mitchell at a Folk Alliance Event in Iowa City, and sent Chuck a demo recording of an original song. Chuck was astounded by how much Eric sounded like his old friend Gordon Lightfoot, and told Eric, “ You are channelling Gordie Lightfoot.”

The second event was performing his original music at Nashville's famed Bluebird Cafe in February of 2020. “The Bluebird Cafe is one of the most sought after gigs among independent songwriters in the US,” says the retired Navy Commander turned Singer-Songwriter. “Performing at The Bluebird, opened a lot of doors for me.” Eric seized the opportunity and built on it.

Today, Eric is an established Principal Artist, and Songwriter. He regularly plays sold out Shows in Theaters and Arts Centers in the US. In 2025 Eric has dates in Colorado, New Mexico, Arizona, Texas, Florida, New York, Pennsylvania, Nebraska, Ohio, and British Columbia.

Eric Elison's Shows include all of Gordon Lightfoot's hits, many deep cuts and some of Eric's own original songs that audiences say remind them of Gordon Lightfoot, and John Denver. Eric's original songs are heavily influenced by his life in the West. His songs have an air of mysticism, romance, and adventure. No wonder fans call this Coloradan, Lightfoot of the Rockies.
