Palmer Lake, CO

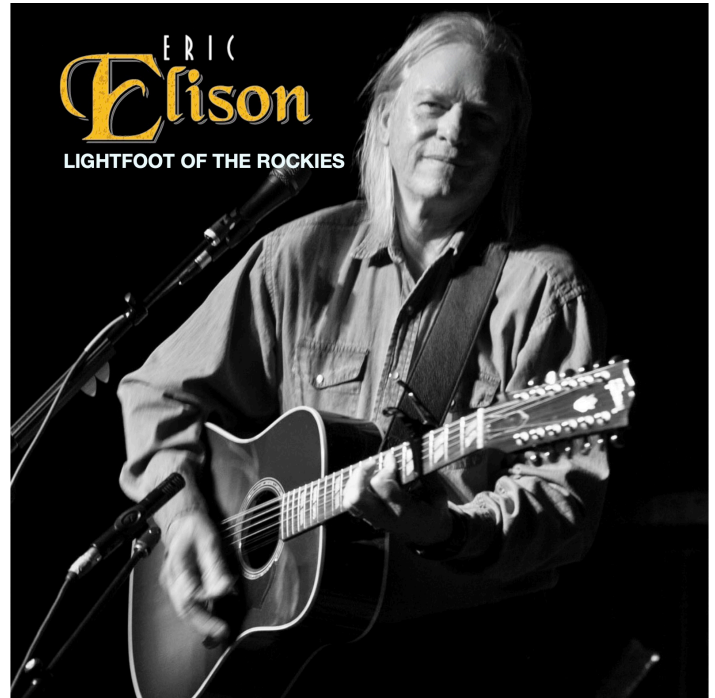

On Friday, April 15, the Tri-Lakes Center for the Arts (TLCA) hosted Singer-Songwriter, Eric Alison, and his Gordon Lightfoot Tribute Band. Alison known as The Lightfoot of the Rockies, captivated the audience at this sold-out show with known and lesser known Lightfoot songs along with a few of his own originals.

The performed Lightfoot Songs included Early Morning Rain, a song Lightfoot described as “his first best song;” If You Could Read My Mind; Sundown; The Wreck of the Edmund Fitzgerald; Song for a Winter’s Night (written in Cleveland in the summer); Carefree Highway; Christian Island; Affair on 8th Avenue; Seven Island Suite, and Canadian Railroad Trilogy. The Band also performed Alison’s Worthy of You, a tribute to his wife of 44 years.

Elison, playing six and 12 string acoustic guitars was accompanied by highly accomplished musicians: Frank Sanchez (electric bass), Matt Podschweit (keyboard), Dina Hollingsworth (flute), and KJ Braithwaite (lead guitar).

Writers Note: This concert happened two weeks prior to Lightfoot’s Death at age 84. He died on May 1, 2023. Information on upcoming events at the TLCA is at trilakesarts.org Photo by David Futey
